Choosing the Right Business Laying the Groundwork for Success The first step on your legal journey is selecting the most suitable business structure for your needs Each structure offers distinct advantages and disadvantages regarding liability 2 taxation and administrative requirements Heres a breakdown of the most common business structures for interior designers

- 1 Sole Proprietorship The simplest form where the business is owned and operated by one individual Advantages Easy to set up minimal paperwork and owner directly controls all business decisions Disadvantages Owner is personally liable for all business debts and obligations limited access to funding and may be difficult to attract investors
- 2 Partnership Two or more individuals pool resources and expertise to operate a business Advantages Shared workload combined expertise potential for greater capital access Disadvantages Potential for disagreements each partner is personally liable for business debts and complex legal

agreements are necessary

3 Limited Liability Company LLC A separate legal entity that offers limited liability protection to its owners Advantages Protects personal assets from business liabilities flexible tax options can be taxed as a partnership or corporation and easier to attract investors Disadvantages More complex to set up and maintain than a sole proprietorship higher operating costs and possible double taxation

4 Corporation A separate legal entity with its own rights and liabilities Advantages Limited liability for shareholders potential for greater funding and offers greater legal protection Disadvantages Complex and expensive to establish subject to more regulations and scrutiny and potentially higher tax rates

Choosing the right structure involves careful consideration of Liability exposure How much risk are you willing to take on Tax implications How will each structure impact your tax obligations Funding needs Do you require external investors or funding Future growth plans Are you planning to expand or scale your business Consulting with a legal professional is highly recommended to ensure you choose the most suitable business structure for your specific circumstances
